Advance Directives – The Patient's Right to Decide

All adult individuals in hospitals, nursing homes and other health care settings have certain rights. For example, you have a right to confidentiality of your personal and medical records and to know what treatment you will receive.

You also have another right. You have the right to fill out a paper known as an "advance directive". The paper says in advance what kind of treatment you want or do not want under special, serious medical conditions – conditions that would prevent you from telling your doctor how you want to be treated. For example, if you were taken to a hospital in a coma, would you want the hospital's medical staff to know your specific wishes about decisions affecting your treatment?

This article answers some questions related to a federal law that took effect in 1991 that requires most hospitals, nursing facilities, hospices, home health care programs and health maintenance organizations (HMO's) to give you information about advance directives and your legal choices in making decisions about medical care. The law is intended to increase your control over medical treatment decisions.

The information in this article can help you make decisions in advance of treatment. Because this is an important matter, however, you may wish to talk to family, close friends and your doctor before deciding whether you want an advance directive.

Finally, it is important to remember that state laws differ about legal choices available to individuals for treatment options that can be honored by hospitals and other health care providers and organizations. These health care professionals should have information for you on your state's advance directive law.

What is an Advance Directive?

Generally, an advance directive is a written statement, which you complete in advance of serious illness, about how you want medical decisions made. The two most common forms of advance directives are:

- Living Will
- Durable Power of Attorney for Health Care

An advance directive allows you to state your choices for health care or to name someone to make those choices for you, if you become unable to make decisions about your medical treatment. In short, an advance directive can enable you to make decisions about your future medical treatment. You can say, "yes" to treatment you want, or say "no" to treatment you don't want.

What is a Living Will?

A Living Will generally states the kind of medical care you want (or don't want) if you become unable to make your own decision. It is called a Living Will because it takes effect while you are still living.

Most states have their own living will forms, each somewhat different. It may also be possible to complete and sign a pre-printed living will form available in your own community, draw up your own form, or simply write a statement of your preferences for treatment. You my also wish to speak to an attorney or your physician to be certain you have completed the living will in a way that your wishes will be understood and followed.

What is a Durable Power of Attorney for Health Care?

In many states a Durable Power of Attorney for Health Care is a signed, dated and witnessed paper naming another person such as a husband, wife, daughter, son, or close friend as you agent or proxy to make medical decisions for you if you should become unable to make them for yourself. You can include instructions about any treatment you want or wish to avoid. Some states have specific laws allowing a health care power of attorney and provide printed forms.

Which is Better: A Living Will or a Durable Power of Attorney for Health Care?

In some states, laws may make it better to have one or the other. It may also be possible to have both, or to combine them in a single document that describes treatment choices in a variety of situations (ask your doctor about these) and names someone (called your agent or proxy) to make decisions for you, should you be unable to make decisions for yourself.

PHYSICIAN-PATIENT ARBITRATION AGREEMENT

Article 1: Agreement to Arbitrate: It is understood that any dispute as to medical malpractice, that is as to whether any medical services rendered under this contract were unnecessary or unauthorized or were improperly, negligently, or incompetently rendered, will be determined by submission to arbitration as provided by California law, and not by a lawsuit or resort to court process except as California law provides for judicial review or arbitration proceedings. Both parties to this contract, by entering into it, are giving up their constitutional rights to have any such dispute decided on a court of law before a jury, and instead are accepting the use of arbitration.

Article 2: All Claims Must be Arbitrated: It is the intention of the parties that this agreement bind all parties whose claims may arise out of or related to treatment or service provided by the physician including any spouse or heirs of the patient and any children, whether bron or unborn, at the time of the occurrence giving rise to any claim. In the case of any pregnant mother, the term "patient" herein shall mean the mother and the mother's expected child or children.

All claims for monetary damages exceeding the jurisdictional limit of the small claims court against the physician, and the physician's partners, associates, association, corporation or partnership, and the employees, agents and estates of any if them, must be arbitrated including, without limitation, claims for loss of consortium, wrongful death, emotional distress or punitive damages. Filing of any court by the physician to collect any fee from the patient shall not waive the right to compel arbitration of any malpractice claim.

Article 3: Procedures and Applicable Law: A demand for arbitration must communicate in writing to all parties. Each party shall select an arbitrator (party arbitrator) within thirty days and a third arbitrator (neutral arbitrator) shall be selected by the arbitrators appointed by the parties within thirty days of a demand for a neutral arbitrator by either party. Each party to the arbitration shall pay such party's pro rata share of the expenses and fees of the neutral arbitrator, together with other expenses of the arbitration incurred or approved by the neutral arbitrator, not including counsel fees or witness fees, or other expenses incurred by a party for such party's own benefit. The parties agree that the arbitrators have the immunity of a judicial officer from civil liability when acting in the capacity of arbitrator under this contract. This immunity shall supplement, nit supplant, any other applicable statutory or common law.

Either party shall have the absolute right ti arbitrate separately the issues of liability and damages upon written request to the neutral arbitrator.

The parties consent to the intervention and joinder in this arbitration of any person or entity which would otherwise be a proper additional party in a court action, and upon such intervention and joinder any existing court action against such additional person or entity shall be stayed pending arbitration.

The parties agree that provisions of California law applicable to health care providers shall apply to disputes within this arbitration agreement, including, but not limited to, Code of Civil Procedure Section 340.5 and 667.7 and Civil Code Sections 3333.1 and 3333.2. Any party may bring before the arbitrations a motion for summary judgment or summary adjudication in accordance with the Code of Civil Procedure. Discovery shall be conducted pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 1283.05, however, depositions may be taken without prior approval of the neutral arbitrator.

Article 4: General Provisions: All claims based upon the same incident, transaction or related circumstances shall be arbitrated in once proceeding. A claim shall be waived and forever barred if (1) on the date notice thereof is received, the claim, if asserted in a civil action, would be barred by the applicable California statute of limitations, or (2) the claimant fails to pursue the arbitration claim in accordance with the procedures prescribed herein with reasonable diligence. With respect to any matter not herein expressly provided for, the arbitrators shall be governed by the California Code of Civil Procedure provisions relating to arbitration.

Article 5: Revocation: This agreement may be revoked by written notice delivered to the physician within 30 days, or signature. It is the intent of this agreement to apply to all medical services rendered any time for any condition.

Article 6: Retroactive Effect: If patient intends this agreement to cover services rendered before the date it is Effective as of the date of first medical services.
